

Dear Mr. President,

I have asked my grandfather to write this letter for me. I don't know how to write very well yet, because I am only 7 years old and have some learning difficulties. Nevertheless, I am upset over the war in Iraq and want to tell you how I feel.

I think you should end this war. I think you should not send more troops. Too many people have died already and I am very angry that you are trying to send more. Many more might still die and that makes me very angry and I just want to cry.

So please, stop this horrible war. Stop killing American troops and Iraqi people. Enough have died already.

Thank you for your time and for reading my letter.

I hope you will give my position serious consideration.

Sincerely Yours,

Maris L. Schmidt
